USB Internet dongle

Team leaders will receive an internet 'dongle' so that they can connect their computer to the internet.

This dongle belongs to the organisers. Please return it to the organisers before you leave the competition site.

Plug it into your computer and it should self-install. It connects through the Vodafone mobile phone network.

It already has 3Gb of data. This is enough for the championships. If you want more data, you can buy more for your own use.
